

Matthew 21.23-32

Jesus' Authority Gets Questioned

Aim: to see Jesus' wisdom in how He responds to the fools and their question of His authority.

Scripture Reading: Matthew 21.23-32

Jesus' _____ Is Immediately Questioned (v.23)

They were ultimately telling Jesus that there is no greater authority than _____!

The presence of _____ was among them.

A fool here in Proverbs 26 is someone who _____ in God.

How Does Jesus Answer The _____? (v.24-25)

It takes _____ and _____ to answer a fool when all they are wanting to do is to try and discredit God and to discredit the things of God.

Jesus answered the fools with a _____ that _____ their true identity.

Jesus Gives Them A _____ Instead (v.28-32)

These chief priests, elders, scribes, and Pharisees not only refused to obey and receive the gospel, but _____ to refuse and receive the gospel.

In the minds of these religious rulers, tax collectors and prostitutes were the _____ of the earth.

Matthew 21.23-32

Jesus' Authority Gets Questioned

Aim: to see Jesus' wisdom in how He responds to the fools and their question of His authority.

Scripture Reading: Matthew 21.23-32

Jesus' _____ Is Immediately Questioned (v.23)

They were ultimately telling Jesus that there is no greater authority than _____!

The presence of _____ was among them.

A fool here in Proverbs 26 is someone who _____ in God.

How Does Jesus Answer The _____? (v.24-25)

It takes _____ and _____ to answer a fool when all they are wanting to do is to try and discredit God and to discredit the things of God.

Jesus answered the fools with a _____ that _____ their true identity.

Jesus Gives Them A _____ Instead (v.28-32)

These chief priests, elders, scribes, and Pharisees not only refused to obey and receive the gospel, but _____ to refuse and receive the gospel.

In the minds of these religious rulers, tax collectors and prostitutes were the _____ of the earth.

